Pine Canyon Debuts Luxury Club Cabins
New Amenity For Visiting Guests and Residents

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (Sept. 25, 2017) – Pine Canyon, a private master-planned golf course and residential community in Flagstaff, Arizona, is marking the grand opening of its first Club Cabin, a unique amenity designed for visiting guests and residents awaiting the completion of their home. Symmetry Homes, the newest division of Symmetry Companies, built the contemporary mountain cabins, and Kim Anderson Design curated the premium interiors to create a warm and modern mountain retreat.

The Club Cabins are situated in the heart of the community, between the clubhouse and Camp Pine Canyon, giving guests proximity and easy access to all of the additional amenities available at Pine Canyon. Pine Canyon’s new hospitality team, developed specifically to manage the Club Cabins and the club’s Discover Pine Canyon program for prospective residents, is already accepting reservations for the Club Cabin for October. A second Club Cabin is under construction and will open in the coming months.

“The only way to truly get a feel for the lifestyle and energy at Pine Canyon is to experience it, as a resident would,” Peter Burger, president of Symmetry Companies, said. “Our Club Cabins were designed as contemporary mountain retreats and that is exactly how they feel. It is a point of pride to be able to introduce the Pine Canyon community to this new amenity, and the new hospitality team that supports it.”

Each Club Cabin includes three distinct living spaces, with two end units and one, two-story middle unit. The 720 square-foot end units sleep up to four people and walk out to an elevated, covered patio. The nearly 2,000-square-foot middle unit offers two master suites on the upper level, a fully-appointed kitchen and a deck that looks out to the practice green. The interiors of each cabin feature luxury amenities and state-of-the-art entertainment components, are outfitted with upscale furnishings and feature Symmetry’s new signature shampoo, conditioner and body wash. Concierge service is also available to cabin guests.

Guests may reserve a stay in the Club Cabin for a Discovery Visit to experience the community by calling 928-779-5700. Members who would like to utilize the cabin may do so by reserving it with Pine Canyon’s hospitality team at 928-226-9235.
